

We too desperately need love, we too are sometimes dying of grief without love, because we all need love & need to love someone. That's why we were put here, that's what we're here for—to love & be loved—and we've been given all the pleasures of sight for beauty, sound for music, taste for the deliciousness of food, & touch for the pleasures of feeling & loving & being loved—the thrills of making love, the excitement of reaching that ecstasy of the ultimate of sex, an orgasm of both body & spirit which brings satisfaction & rest & the sweetness of sleep. All the pleasures of life were put here for our good & enjoyment because Somebody loves us & wants us to be happy, & wants us to love & be loved, wants us to enjoy all of the pleasures in life, all of the good things, & wants us to have enough of everything, & intended for it to be Heaven on Earth as in the Beginning!

But how sad, that love for some seems to end with death! Why is this? Life & death are beautifully compared in Alan Seeger's poem, "I Have a Rendezvous with Death", written in the trenches of the First World War as he was thinking about what he felt was going to happen to him. "I have a rendezvous with death at some disputed barricade. God knows 'twere better far to be deep pillowed in silk & scented down, breath nigh

& the loving gifts that He's given & created us to enjoy. If you do not, you can still turn to Him & ask Him to forgive you for your lack of love for others & for Him.

He has died to save you from it all, & He just wants you to turn to Him & be sorry & receive & believe in Him, & be thankful for His goodness to you. He wants you to try to love & do good to others as He has done for you, as He wishes to do for you, & as He will do for you in an even greater measure in a wonderful Future when He comes to take you into His Heavenly Kingdom. He will then take over the Earth & rule with righteousness, Love, mercy, goodness & kindness, & will stop all wars & hatred & lack of Love & create a wonderful, glorious Kingdom of Love here on Earth for us all to enjoy forever!

Do you love Him? If not, turn to Him today, because He loves you! Just ask Him to come into your heart, this wonderful Somebody who loves you, & He will wipe away your tears & cause your pains to cease & give you a loving, wonderful, beautiful life of Love that lasts Forever!

Somebody loves you & wants you to know,
Longs to be with you wherever you go.

Somebody loves you & right from the start,
Somebody wants to come into your heart!

to breath & pulse to pulse, where hushed awakenings are dear; but I have a rendezvous with death!"

Why is there so much hate & violence & evil, so much sadness & suffering in the World? Why must the World be like this, such a contrast between good & evil, between beauty & ugliness, between pleasure & hardship, between life & death? Why can't it all be wonderful & beautiful & good & pleasant & pleasurable?

Well, it was all made to be that way in the Beginning. But we chose to be selfish, we chose to have our own way, we chose to be unloving & unkind to others, we chose to break the rules that were designed for our happiness & our health & our pleasure, & went our own way, far from the Paradise of our original Creation.—This has brought so much sin & suffering into the World because of the lack of love amongst ourselves & a lack of gratitude & thankfulness to our Creator.

So we have each had a part in bringing all this misery into the World. Don't blame God! His arch-enemy Satan has caused it, & we have too, because most have chosen to follow evil instead of goodness. Let's face it, isn't that mostly the reason for your own misery, for your own griefs, sorrows, regrets & guilt com-

Will you ask Jesus to come into your heart today?—God's Son of Love, His personification of His Love, His Own Son sent to Earth to show us His Love, but whom evil people persecuted, hated & crucified! But thank God, He rose again & ascended to Heaven to be with His Father of Love, & now is with us by His loving Motherly Holy Spirit! Just think, God's Own Son, His loving Son died for you that you might live!

Do you believe in Him? Do you want to receive Him now so you can enjoy His forgiveness & so that He can save you from your sins & give you His wonderful salvation & a happy life of Love with Him now & Forever? He wants you to be happy, I want you to be happy, we all want you to be happy! There are many of us who love you, & you can have lots of Love if you'll just turn to Him & towards those who love you. You can do it right now by praying this little prayer:

"Dear Heavenly Father, please forgive me for all the wrongs that I have done! I'm sorry, & I want to turn to You & receive You into my heart through the Love of Your Son, Jesus. Help me to love You & love others & live by the Words in Your Book, the Bible, so that I can be happy & make others happy. In the name of Jesus, Your Son, amen."

plexes, because of the mistakes you've made, the wrongs you've done, the lack of love that you've had for others, your failure to respond to their love, the hurt that you caused them & the hurt you have suffered from others?

Let's be honest. Haven't we all been bad sometimes? Haven't we all done things that we know are wrong, & that we now can't undo? We can only regret them & be sorry for them & wish we hadn't done them, but now it's too late, the time is gone.

The whole World seems to have been turned upside-down through lack of love, whereas love could have healed so many wounds, restored so many hearts to happiness, eased so much pain & suffering, & averted so much death! But selfishness, greed, thoughtlessness, stubbornness & rebelliousness have constantly caused most of the sorrows of the World, including your own.

But there is Someone who loves you!—And wants to save you, Who even loved you so much & had such great Love that He gave His Life to save yours! "There's no greater Love than this, that a Man lay down His life for His friends!" —John 15:13. And He did that for you, to pay for your sins & give you His grace & His Love & His forgiveness, if you'll just turn to Him & love

If you've said that prayer with sincerity & honesty, Jesus has come into your heart, because He's promised to do so! He said, "Behold, I stand at the door & knock, if anyone will open the door I will come in & have loving fellowship with them."—Revelation 3:20. If you haven't, do it now before it's too late! God bless & keep you & make you a blessing!

Him & thank Him for His Love & His forgiveness & His salvation.

Let's face it, that's what it's all about! God put us here to love Him & be loved by Him through His wonderful Creation & the pleasures He's given us to enjoy, yet we have violated His rules which were made to bring us happiness.

And although His whole Creation testifies to His Love & shows His greatness, goodness & power, & that He is a good God, a loving & a kind God who wants us to be happy, yet we have gone our own way, ignored Him, turned our backs on Him & done as we pleased. This was not pleasing to Him nor to us nor to others, which is why so much misery, sin & suffering have befallen this poor old Earth.

We have spoiled the Paradise on Earth that He put here for us to enjoy. We have ruined it with all the hate, envy, greed, violence, pain, wars & death. But He wants to save you from it, & some day out of it, & even now deliver you from many of these things, & give you joy, peace, pleasure, comfort & happiness, & most of all Love!—Love for Him, Love for others & even Love for yourself! He's the Giver of all good, the God of Love, a loving God, for He is Love. Do you love Him? If you do, you'll enjoy all the wonderful pleasures

SOMEBODY LOVES YOU!

Somebody loves you & wants you to know,
Longs to be with you wherever you go.
Somebody loves you & right from the start,
Somebody wants to come into your heart!

Yes, Somebody loves you, & for that reason has just sent you this little message! Somebody loves you & really wants to make you happy! I love you too! We all want to be loved & we all want to love someone, & Love is the greatest thing on Earth to most of us! Most sadness on Earth is due to a lack of love, for if everyone loved everyone, there would be no more wars or violence or poverty.

But amidst all of the pain & suffering caused by our lack of love for each other, if we will open our eyes & look around, we'll see that the World is also full of love & beauty & wondrous life, the beauties of all Creation put here because of Love!—The grass, the trees, the flowers, the glorious sunsets, the romantic moonlit starry nights, the wonderful animals, the love of pets & their need for love. Even our animals understand love. Our pets understand love & cannot really live without love, & sometimes even die of grief.
