

and because of it, people need Me, and they need Me now. Will you do your part to tell others about Me? Will you share your faith with all those you meet? Will you tell others about Me and My free gift of eternal salvation? I need you to spread the Word, so that I can love and comfort, help, lead and guide people through the coming days on Earth; and so that one day everyone can come home to Heaven and discover the priceless treasures I have waiting for them Here.

Remember, there are many ways you can be a witness for Me. You can not only tell others about My love, but you can also show it to them through a look, a smile, extending a listening ear, saying a prayer for them, showing deeds of kindness, lending a helping hand, etc. Will you tell others about My love? Will you be My love for others? Will you help Me by spreading the Word? Believe Me, there's no time to waste. I need you now more than ever!

With love,

their gift. You can't wait to see the look in their eyes and to hear the words they'll express in thanksgiving for what you've done for them. And though you're not on the receiving end, nevertheless, it makes you happy beyond words. That feeling of joy and deep satisfaction you derive from giving is something that can't be beat. This is why I said, "It's more blessed to give than to receive."

I love giving, and I especially love giving the most precious and valuable possession anyone could ever obtain during their life on Earth.—That is My free gift of Eternal Salvation, so that the receiver can spend forever with Me, and with you, who also know and love Me, in Heaven. I have so much to give, and I want to give gifts galore to not only you, but to every man, woman, and child who will accept Me! My treasure is unending, it never runs out. There's always more! I have more to give than you can possibly even begin to comprehend.

My dear friend, I love all of mankind so very deeply. I have so much to give. I have created Heaven and all of its delights for your pleasure, and I want to share My vast, never-ending wealth of riches and treasure with you and others like you. This is My sincerest desire, to see as many people make it to Heaven as possible. In fact, I want all mankind to be saved. I want you all to make it Up Here one day!

This is why I need your help, dear Christian. This is why I said in My Words to you, "Go into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature." Brother, sister, there couldn't be

I need YOU

I need YOU, dear one, now more than ever! Yes, I do! You know My love for you is strong and deep. I gave My life for you, and if I had to do it all over again, nothing would change. I'd willingly go through every single moment of excruciating pain and heartbreak once more, just for you! It would be well worth it! I'd do anything just to have you close to Me, because I love you.

I love you, and nothing thrills Me more than to think that because you have accepted Me into your heart and life, we will spend all eternity together. Someday, when you arrive here to Heaven, I'm going to take great pleasure in showing you around. I can't wait to see the look on your face when you behold for the first time all the different things I have prepared and waiting for you Up Here.

You know how it can be so exciting to give a present to someone you love?—When you've bought, prepared, or made a special gift for a loved one, and you just can't wait to give it to them? You anticipate the moment and how excited your loved one will be when you present them with a more appropriate time than now to obey this command. Are you game? Can I count on your help to tell others the Good News? You don't have to cross the ocean to fulfill this desire of Mine. You don't even have to cross the country. You can start right now, today, by simply sharing your faith with those around you.

Tell others you meet about Me. Tell all your friends. Tell those in your workplace. Tell the man or woman at the checkout counter. Tell the department store assistant, the real estate agent, the one sitting next to you in the doctor's office or in the movie theater. If you're unable to speak to them personally, why not pass them a tract, a written message telling them about My love? Tell everyone of the wonderful life of love you have found in Me. Tell them the advantages of knowing Me. Tell them what I have to offer—a new life of love now and forever.

Tell them I'll always be there for them. I'll stick closer than a friend I'll be a light when all around them is dark, a comforter when all seems lost. I'll be strong arms to hold them when they feel they can't go on. Tell them that they can talk to Me anywhere, anytime, any hour of the day, and I'll always be there to listen. I will answer them and show them the solution to every problem in life they may encounter.

You know, September 11th changed everyone's lives! Now it's more imperative than ever to spread My Word to those who have yet to hear. The world will never be the same,
